

INVITATION

to an international conference and Grundtvig/Leonardo da Vinci contact seminar

“Adults with special needs in lifelong learning”

Slovenia, 6. - 9. 10. 2011

CMEPIUS, Slovene National Agency has the pleasure to invite you to the Grundtvig and Leonardo da Vinci contact seminar »Adults with special needs in lifelong learning«. The seminar will be accompanied with the international conference on the same topic in organisation with the Association of Slovene Adult Education Centres.

At this occasion, we are aiming at creating networking opportunities for organisations wishing to develop Grundtvig or Leonardo da Vinci decentralised and centralised projects on the theme of adults with special needs in lifelong learning (meaning blind, deaf, mentally and physically disabled). The aim of the conference is to present European and national developments in the field and to show good practices from LLP and other national programmes, projects. The aim of the contact seminar is to create new projects which will give opportunities to foster international cooperation for adults with special needs to be better involved lifelong learning and training.

The seminar will take place in Slovenia, from 6 to 9 October 2011 (the venue is to be set in a month). It is open to representatives of all institutions working with adults with special needs as well as to National Agencies' representatives. Thus, we would be glad to welcome up to 60 participants from all countries as well as interested NA representatives.

The seminar fee for participation is 550 €, covering 4-nights' accommodation, meals, programme costs, seminar material and participation in cultural events. The working language will be English.

For more information, please find enclosed the draft agenda. Registration form and practical details on the organisation of the seminar will follow shortly.

Slovene National Agency, Centre of the Republic of Slovenia for Mobility and European Educational and Training Programmes, Grundtvig and Leonardo da Vinci teams are looking forward to hosting you!

Yours truly,
