

C.H. ROBINSON

For our Warsaw Transportation Branch we are looking for an enthusiastic:

Intern (Full time) – Logistics Operations Representative

An internship in Warsaw's office can offer you not only broad based exposure to our industry, but also experience that will be useful when working with a client. With our Transportation Logistics Internships, you will be exposed to a number of different areas, such as transport operations and customer service. The goal of this Internship is to offer you a challenging learning opportunity.

When you walk through the door at one of our branches, the first thing you notice is the energy. Our teams are outgoing, dynamic and engaging. If you are driven by energy, action and success, our work environment will be a perfect fit. From your first day, you'll learn to speak with customers, communicate with carriers and start making decisions. Managers will listen to you and trust your instincts. Colleagues will promote your accomplishments and you will do the same for them. You will be surrounded by a supportive team that will mentor you through your development.
