Description of the organisation

Our Planning department of Unpli Veneto is based in the north-east of Italy close to Venice and the Prosecco wine area.

Unpli Veneto was founded in 1974 as a union who represents the interests and activities of 513 different Pro Loco (local Action Groups) all around Veneto Region.

Our Project Office is focused in Social and Tourism development, in particular it concerns environment, wine&food and culture projects, tourism events and Folk Art.

Our aims are the following:

- to promote and encourage the integration of local community leading to sustainable development;
- to support local strategies for tourism development, local traditions and culture;
- to promote partnerships between local stakeholders, NGOs, private, governmental and non-government actors;
- to find good partners, create connections and plan good projects in order to obtain european grants and financing.

Fundamentally we manage, support and promote the activities of many projects for different target in different locations around

Veneto Region. Below the references of some projects carried out directly by us or by the Pro Loco groups based in our region:

	These are just some of our activities all around Veneto Region for further informations don't hesitate to contact us. Surely we will be able to find something that fits with your interests and next projects!!!
Main educational activities	We also manage several projects concerning learning activities, mainly for the volunteers of our local action groups. We organize different activities in order to involve people in recognising their own local culture as part of the European heritage. Our main activities concern discovering and teaching traditions, typical food and wine, cultural, artistic, linguistic heritage. We promote field trips to improve cultural exchange between local communities and to improve the knowledge about all different aspects of our European culture. The main driver of all activities of our Pro Loco is the promotion of local heritage with a European approach.
