

Visits for News Media Collaborators (PRESS)

Program Characteristics:

Professional Internship Program

In print and electronic communications media

This program is directed toward professionals in the print or electronic communication media from foreign countries interested in aspects related to Mexico's contribution to the cultural and scientific development with the aim of reflecting them on their respective media, through articles, features or interviews.

Eligibility

Mass media active journalists from countries where the Call for SRE Scholarships for Foreigners is distributed.

Duration

Variable (according to the work plan)

Requirements:

- Meet the requirements stipulated in the Call for SRE Scholarships for Foreigners.
- Have a letter of introduction from the grantee's media employer stating the reasons for interest and, the promise to publish the work done in Mexico by the grantee.
- Send an original of work published by the applicant (printed, audio or video) to the Directorate for Academic Exchange of the General Directorate for Cultural Affairs

Contact:

Catalina López Portillo Alcocer. Email: catalinaalpa@sre.gob.mx

Benefits

- International air travel at the beginning and end of the scholarship.
- National transportation, depending on the work plan.
- Once-off allowance equal to 5 D.F. minimum wages