

Improvement in the Quality of Mexican Higher Education Institutions

Program Characteristics.

Grants are offered to experts in education for visits aimed at developing activities (courses, workshops, lectures, etc.) conducive to improving the quality, administration, and management of Mexico's public higher-education institutions.

Eligibility

The grants are offered to the nationals of countries in which the Call for SRE Scholarships for Foreigners is distributed.

Receiving Mexican Institutions

Public higher-education institutions. Coordination of this Program shall be the responsibility of the National Association of Universities and Higher-Education Institutions (ANUIES), which shall submit candidatures to the SRE.

Duration

Minimum duration shall be established on the basis of the project requirements. Maximum duration shall be one month.

Scholarships cannot be awarded for conducting activities during the months of January and December, nor those which end in the month of December.

Requirements

- Meet the requirements of the Call for SRE Scholarships for Foreigners.
- Have an express invitation from a Mexican public higher-education institution to develop the activity.
- Have approval for the project from the Asociación Nacional de Universidades e Instituciones de Educación Superior (ANUIES) [National Association of Universities and Higher-Education Institutions]. Those interested should contact Mtra. Christina Guerrero Harmon, Director for International Cooperation, at: Tenayuca N°200, Col. Sta. Cruz Atoyac, C.P. 03310, México, D.F., México. Phone: 5420 4978 and 5420 4942. E-mail: gmorones@anuies.mx
- Be an expert on educational themes.
- Return to their native countries upon termination of the grant.
- Submit candidature on Application Form B, included in this Call.

Benefits

SRE

- Once-off allowance equal to 5 D.F. minimum wages.
- International air-travel at the beginning and end of the grant.

- Travel Mexico City-assigned location and assigned location-Mexico City, in the event that the activities are to be conducted in the provinces.

() The receiving Mexican institution must examine the possibility of offering the expert an allowance supplementary to that offered by the SRE, should this be required.*